

Society for International Development

ILLINOIS SOCIETY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT and DePaul University

presents

Trends and Resources in International Philanthropy

Donors Forum: <http://www.donorsforum.org>

Celeste Wroblewski, Vice President, External Relations, Donors Forum

Bio: <http://www.donorsforum.org/news/leadershipbios.html#Wroblewski>

Tracy Poe, Ph.D., an international philanthropist and Chair of the Steering Committee, the Chicago Global Donors Network

Bio: <http://www.stmaryspdx.org/alumnae/2007AcademyAwards.htm>

Celeste Wroblewski will discuss the resources available from the Donor's Forum, the current types of funding available and future directions including resources for dealing with an uncertain economy.

Tracy Poe is a trustee of her family's Frankel Family Foundation, and her passion drives her to become deeply involved in the work of both the foundation and the causes they support. Half of her family's funding is international in nature, with focuses on displaced ethnic populations and human rights. She will discuss Chicago Global Donors Network, a "sponsored project" of the Donors Forum whose mission is to educate, encourage and support donors in their international giving in order to increase knowledge of international philanthropy and to deepen its impact.

May 13, 2008 (Tuesday)

6:00pm to 8:00pm

DePaul University, Chicago (Downtown Campus*)

1 East Jackson Boulevard, Room 11013

Donation: $5 for non-members, free for members ■ Refreshments served

This event is sponsored by the Illinois Society for International Development (ISID), which promotes awareness of international development issues in Illinois and encourages networking and discussion. ISID organizes events monthly, the second Tuesday of every month, focusing on international development issues. To receive information about upcoming events, subscribe to the listserv by writing "subscribe" to: ISID-subscribe@topica.com. ISID is a member of the Society for International Development, headquartered in Rome, Italy. For more information, visit our website – www.isidonline.org.

*DePaul is steps from the JACKSON el stop on the Red line. Parking is difficult -- (http://www.depaul.edu/about_DP/parking.asp#loop). For further information about the event, please see the ISID website at <http://www.isidonline.org>